For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

which to at healthy, and offictual officatual tor preserving tho air. It soon restores faded or gray hair to ats original color, with the No. a Lightning Fapress.

han is thickened, falling han checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use Nothing can restore the han where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and derayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of touling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will present the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent buldness. The storation of vitility it gives to scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive Free from those delaterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not ham it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING. nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustro, and a grateful perfume. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Aver & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, LOWELL, MASS.

BARNUM'S NEW WIFE.

North & East of Lafayette

From the New York Herald, 17th During the brief interval that fol owed the close of the morning session of the Universalist convention, yesterday, before the people had time to disperse, a commotion was noticed in the the Church of the Divine Paternity. Dr Chapin entered and occupied a Shair beneath the pulpit, The organist struck up a wedding quickstep, and rumor carried the news around that P. Ti Barnum, the showman; had caught a pretty English Fish, and was about to make her his own according to law to its virtues from persons of the highest character and responsibility Luminent phis sidans commend it as the most Effect.

and custom. In a few moments the organ pealed forth its grandest, and unl Remedy nion rail, leading on his arm Miss Nancy Fish, a young lady of twenty-six summers, lithe and pretty, the daughter of Mr. John Fish, of Southport, a retired manufacturer of Lancashire, England, who has been put on the the rack by Mr. Barnum, in his autobiography, as "An Enterprising Englishman." The bride was dressed in a slate colored dress, and wore a black velvet hat with blue teathers. From her ears depended diamond earrings. The bridegroom was attired in an evening dress, suit The knot was tied in short order by Dr Chapin, and as the happy pan were pronounced husband and wife, according to the laws of God and of the State, the groom imprinted a kiss on his bride's, cheek, for which he was applauded by the assemblage and the plous, pastor present. The couple immediately retired to the Windsor Hotel, where they are at pres ent domiciled There was no nonsense or ostentation about the wedding, and few persons outside the church, not even those in the hotel, knew that a wedling had taken place between the showman and an English lady Mr Barnum has been a widower about a year Ho is Whales are supposed to live to great age, and, apropos, a story is told of a sailor whose boat was wrecked, while he and his mess mates were tossed high in air, by a mad whale's flukes. As he came down, after half an hour had elapsed, the whale awaited him. with open mouth, and instead of sink ing as deep into the sea as he had been in the air he slid, smoothly into the whale's interior As soon as he recovered his breath he drew out his tobacco box and helped himself to a liberal and surveyed the apartment which contained many wonders you may be sure Some writing on one of the walls attract ed his attention, and on examination it proved to be the words, "Jonah, B C 862" This amused him so much that the "quid" fell out of his mouth and the whale at once began to writhe and show a violent dislike to nicotine A happy idea occurred to him, and he cut his plug of tobacco into small pieces which he distributed over the floor -The whale then heaved more violently than before, and while Jack was hold ing his sides at the joke, he was thrown into the water and almost on board one of the ship's boats. Some of his comrades doubted his wondrous story, but, for the benefit, of unbelievers, he had brought back with him a bocket knife with a buck horn handle, on which were carved Jonah's initials and an American Eagle -Nim rod of the Sea; or, The American power may be very black that white children is all ker.

We, the delegated representatives of the Republican party of Illinois, declare the following to be substantially our political belief:

2 That, as one of the consequences of the late civil war, about $382,000,000 of non-interest bearing Treasury hotes were issued to, and are now held by, the people as a safe, and convenient currency, it would be unwise and inexpedient, in the present financial road tion of the people, to attempt the immediate cancellation of any portion of wide Treasury note.

sitch Treasury notes.

3 That the laws for the establishment of national banks having secured to the States and Territories the best system of bank cirguilation ever before amorded the people, it should be no longer confined to a privileged class, but should be free to all alike, under general and equal laws, the aggregate volume of currency to be regulated by the untrimmeled laws of trade.

4. That we re-affirm the declaration of the National Republican Convention of 1872, in favor of a return to specie payment at the earliest practicable day.

5. That we commend the measures which have passed the popular branch of Congress, topking to the cheapening and perfection of inter-State railway transportation, and the improvement of navigation at the mouth of the Mississipp river.

6 That we are in favor of an amendment of the Constitution of the United States providing for the election of the President and Vice President by the direct vote of the people, without the Intervention of the Electoral College.

7 That the Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the nowers dele-

7 That the Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved, by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Pederal Governments; and it will aim to secure the rights and privileges of the citizen without regard to nativity or creed; and it is opposed to interference by law with the habits, tasted or customs of individuals, except to suppress licentiousness or to preserve the peace and safety of the citizens of the State, 8 That while we accord to the railway companies of this State the follest measure of property rights, we also demand for the people reasonable charges and rigid impartiality in the transportation of passengers and reight—such guaranty to be secured by appropriate State and National legislation. Relying upon the foregoing declaration of principles and policy, and upon the broad, clear record of the Republican party during its fifteen years of State and Federal administration, we appeadonce more to that silent yet conclusive tribunal, the ballot box, confident that the people will endorse overwhelmingly the action of this representative Convention

For two days past he has been employed by attorneys to translate some German love-letters written by an old man sixty five years of age, who was enamored by a woman about 20 years younger than himself. To this lady he sent the expenses of crossing the ocean, and to come here and fall into Amor's arms. When the would-be bride arrived her betrothed had fled, and so far as' we can learn, he has gone to the rebel States, and is now rebelling. When his letters are read in our court room we predict that all present will hold their sides in laughter.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING.

A large audience gathered at the First

M. E. Church last evening, in response to for the purpose of attending the Union Sunday-school meeting which was to have not be present which fact was made known through the columns of this paper. Notwithstanding this disappointment it was thought best to hold the meeting, and by half-past 7 o'clock the large church was well-filled. For some reason there was a long and tedious delay in commencing the exercises and from the movement of things we fudge the office of chairman (like the offices in the farmers' movement) was looking for a man to fill it. Finally J. P. Moore, Esq., nominated Capt. Ira Harris to preside, who was chosen by acclamation, and came forward and made some explanatory remarks as to the disappointment, and the objects of the meeting. He suggested that speakers express their views in regard to having normal classes for the training of Sunday-school teachers, and in speaking of the qualifications of those now in the field, he made some observations not particularly complimentary to their general intelligence. The exercises were opened by singing him keep house. a'Sunday-school song by the audience, under the lead of George F. Wessels, Esq., who also presided at the organ. Prayer was then offered by Rev. W. N. McElroy, the town-ind another song was sung The chairman then called upon J. P. Moore, Esq., who came forward and made ome very good practical remarks upon the importance of the Sunday-school work and the need of a deeper interest in it. smashed to pleces, and now is almost. Another song followed the address of Mr. Moore, when Dr. Stevenson, In re-Kitchen he selling so cheap, at the red sponse to the call of the chair, came for ward and made a brief address, which contained some excellent suggestions for > the consideration of Sunday-school work-This address was followed by another song, and the song by an address from Geo. F. Wessels, Esq., who urged the importauce of going out after the children who are not in attendance upon any Sunday school, and have no religious instructions

Another song was then sung, after which Rev. W. H. Reed addressed the meeting. This speaker set forth the importance of a more thorough training, and preparation on the part of those who hold the place of teachers in our Sunday-schools. He said no one was permitted to teach in our public schools until having passed a rigid ex amination they were furnished with a certificate vouching for their qualifications, and he thought it was of quite as much importance to place the religious education of children in competent hands.

At the conclusion of this address the chairman said that it had been expected that the Pastors of the Presbyterian and Baptist churches would speak, but as the former was not present, and the bour was getting late, they would dispense with further speaking.

The audience then joined in singing the Doxology, and Rev. J. C. Bonham pronounced the Benediction.
